Terms of Service

Last updated: October 28, 2026

1. The app

ShortClip ("the app") is a personal desktop tool that makes short videos and uploads them to YouTube channels the user has connected. It runs only on the user's own computer and is not sold or offered as a service.

2. YouTube Terms of Service

The app uses YouTube API Services. By using the app, you agree to be bound by the YouTube Terms of Service. Our Privacy Policy explains how YouTube data is handled, and Google's handling of data is described in the Google Privacy Policy.

3. Your content

You are responsible for the videos you upload with the app, including their titles, descriptions and tags, and for following YouTube's Community Guidelines and policies, including disclosing altered or synthetic content where required.

4. Access

You can disconnect a channel in the app or revoke access on the Google security settings page at any time.

5. No warranty

The app is provided "as is", without warranty of any kind.

6. Changes

These terms may be updated. The new version will be posted on this page with a new date.

7. Contact
